LESLIE JOSEPH ADAMOVICH

Les joined V.C. five years ago from Immaculate Conception. In his stay at the College he has participated actively in the Video-taping Activity. Outside of the College electronics and model aircraft building take up a lot of his leisure time. U.B.C. is in his future.

JOHN WILLIAM GRAY ALLISON

Gray is one of those guys who boasts about attending College for twelve years(is he crazy?). Outside of school he dabbles in bartending and swimming but he still finds time for the Yearbook and the Bingo Committee. After graduation Gray plans to enter accounting at U.B.C.

Dave has roamed the halls of V.C. for the last six years. An above average athlete, he has tried his hand at nearly every sport at the College. Partygoing and generally having a good time take up most of Dave's leisure time. He is undecided about his future.

AU-YEUNG CHIK FUN

If you stay late after school beware of Steve. He is always lurking around the Senior Boarders Residence ready to give you a bad time. Steve has attended College for two years and plans to continue his education at university.

TIM BATTLE

Tim has endured the College life for five long years. When not participating behind the scenes for the musical he can be found skiing down the nearest mountain slope. A frequent honor roll student, he envisions many happy hours of study at U.B.C.

What would a History class be without Jack echoing Br. Carrothers with, "For sure, for sure." When Jack isn't reading Karl Marx he can be found gunning down 340 Dusters in his 1962 Chevy Impala or relaxing at the Fraser Arms Coffee Shop. Travel is in Jack's plans after graduation.

PAUL PHILLIP BEKENN

Paul is the Cary Grant of the Grads. Nearly all year round he can be found on a stage interpreting some classical role. When not acting he is involved with Varsity Soccer and the U.N. Club. After graduation Paul hopes to travel a bit, maybe even back to see England again.

ALBERT JOHN BORGET

Bart has made the trek up Granville Street to College every day now for 12 years. On the weekends he can be seen hiking up the tallest mountains he can find, only to ski right back down again. Intramural Basketball takes up his spare time after school, although he still finds time to help out in the musical. Next September Bart will be attending U.B.C.

Brian hails from Quebec City and has been going to the College for seven years. He spends his time horseback riding and swimming, but still finds time for the U.N. Club. A consistent honor roll student he plans to attend university after graduation.

DENNIS ANTHONY BOSA

The editor of this year's marvelous publication, Dennis spent most of his grad year piecing together this yearbook. One of the constant honor roll students, in grade twelve Dennis still finds time to race Formula TC cars. He will attend university after graduation.

Gray Allison is ventilating his poor, aching feet as he regains the shelter of the College gym at the end of the wonderfully successful Walkathon. Gray gained notoriety of sorts when, with the help of his father, he cajoled or bludgeoned enough people to sweet-talk his way into $448.75 worth of pledges -- the highest in the school.

PETER EDWARD CAMPOS

Pete, in his four years at the College, has left a lasting impression. Managing the varsity football team and slaving in the year-book darkroom have taken up most of his time. As of yet, Pete has no plans for after graduation although whatever he does we know it will be a success.

DECLAN THOMAS MICHAEL BRENNAN

"Crash Brennan" has tantalized the girls of Vancouver since his arrival from across the Rockies five years ago. When not found skiing or studying he claims to work underground for the LRA. After attending the University of Alberta, Declan plans to seek his fortune, legally.

FELIX CHANG

Felix has devoted much of his time and energy to the Yearbook this year. A consistent honor roll student, he plays tennis and hockey in his leisure time. It is rumored that he is such a spectacular goalie that he may become the first one to play pro hockey. After graduation he will further his education at university.

MARCUS SCOTT COLLIER

ROGER LESLIE COUSINS

Roger is one of the small band of evacuees from Cassiar, B.C. In his free time he studies heavenly bodies (!) and German conversation and he plays at soldiering in the Reserves. The University of Notre Dame in Nelson, B.C. will be his home after graduation.

BRIAN ROGER CORNFOOT

Unknown to many people at V.C., Roger smashes keyboards for a local boogie woogie band. In his spare time he attended the College working on the musical and dabbling in football and wrestling. He hopes to obtain a piano teacher's certificate after graduation.

ENRIQUE CRAME

Enrique has attended the College for the past six years. Always a faithful supporter of the College football and basketball teams, he could be seen at all games. Enrique is undecided about his future upon graduation.

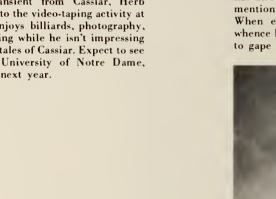

JOAQUIN CRAME

"Yak" as he is known around the College has mastered the art of selling doughnuts at the 10 minute break. In his six year stay he has constantly tried to make the honor roll, however, it has been to no avail. Outside of school he enjoys a rough game of basketball or a relaxing game of ping-pong. He is undecided on his future.

HERBERT DAUM

Another transient from Cassiar, Herb has latched onto the video-taping activity at College. He enjoys billiards, photography, and motorbiking while he isn't impressing the boys with tales of Cassiar. Expect to see Herb at the University of Notre Dame, Nelson, B.C., next year.

DIARMUID GEORGE JOSEPH DICK

Every morning for the past five years Diarmuid has descended from the loft in the North Shore to mix with the proletariate. During his stay he played varsity football and intramural basketball, He has also dabbled in the newspaper not to mention fighting for the "Socialist Horde." When evening arrived he would rise to whence he came, leaving mere mortals only to gape in wonderment.

GARDNER DAY

Every day for five long years Gardner has crossed the inlet from the North Shore to attend V.C. An exceptional athlete "O.J. Day" battled at linebacker for the varsity football team. When not dreaming of the day he will return to set up a law practise in his native Kenya, Gardner can be found lounging in the newspaper room, running a variety show, or beating up his Volkswagen. After graduation Gardner will take a Commerce-Law course at U.B.C.

ROBERT COULTAS DODSWORTH

Who could forget the outspoken voice of Rob Dodsworth, Captain - coach of the V.C. senior soccer team. If not complaining about the bus driver, College dances, or Chevys, Rob can be found helping out on The Voice or killing himself skiing. Despite all the complication in Rob's life, he still plans to tackle Commerce in U.B.C. in the near future.

ROBERT GEORGE ANTHONY DONNELLY

Rob claims to be an all around outdoorsman, hunting and fishing when he isn't at the College. Center on the varsity football team, he played an important part in many of the College's big victories. Using his outdoors skill, Rob will guide safaris in the darkest jungles of Africa after graduation.

ROBERT DOYLE

Another member of the varsity football team Bob played split end. A regular on the honor roll Bob helped out on Drama, played some golf, and did some skiing in his spare time. He hopes to follow in his father's footsteps and become a doctor after graduation.

MIKE BRIAN JOE FALCON

Mike has dragged his book bag all the way from West Van. to College for the past 3 years. Another one of our many fine humorists he has also displayed talent in the fields of swimming, tennis, and skiing. Mike's future holds work, travel, and despite his consistent failure to make the honour roll, a career at Harvard as the dean of studies.

PAUL A. DUMAS

A late arrival from down under (Australia) Paul has developed quickly into an involved member of the College student body. Participating in the U.N. Club and Bingo at the College and rugby after school are among his interests. If all his plans mature we should find Paul at B.C.I.T. next year.

CRAIG RONALD FAVREAU

Craig has attended this venerable institution for the past five years and has established himself as a fine all round student. A very likeable person, Craig's favourite pastimes are making friends and enjoying good jokes. His hobbies are hockey and skiing. Craig looks forward to a thorough education at U.B.C.

JOHN FEE

John "the professor" has made himself known as an avid student of the sciences in his five years at the College. Originally from Belfast, N. Ireland, his hobbies include photography, skin and scuba diving. The future holds U.B.C. and plenty of promise for John.

ANTHONY FONG CHI SING

Tony is a two year boarder from Hong Kong. A person of various talents, he has lettered in track and field, made the honour roll consistently, and has established himself as a fine chess player. Tony plans to attend university after graduation and eventually become the Prince of Peking.

JAMES MARK LESLIE GARAYT

Originally from Montreal, Jim has spent his last 10 years at the College. He has made his presence felt in such school projects as the raffle, musical, and bingo. In his spare time, Jim has earned the reputation as another Rod Laver on the tennis courts. Jim is anxious to become (of all things) a school teacher.

ADONIS GARCIA

"Garce" has been an avid fan of basketball, tennis, and himself during his four year stay at the College. A great believer in positive thinking he lets absolutely nothing faze him. Hailing from the Philippines, Adonis plans to further his education at U.B.C.

FREDERICK MICHAEL GERRY

Fred has wandered through the halls of College for five years now. He says his favourite pastime is sleeping but in reality Fred is quite an active guy, contributing significantly to the musicals and the soundroom. Fred wishes to further his education at some university and acquire plenty of sleep.

FLOYD LOYOLA GILLIS

Floyd is a heralded member of the basketball-at-lunch crowd. After six years at College he has shown himself to be an occasional athlete and a fine scholar. His favourite pastimes are sailing and observing his goldfish. Floyd's plans after graduation are to attend U.B.C. and become a teacher.

To any one of you who didn't know that great sounding voice behind the loud speaker at all the football games this season was none other than the one and only M.F. Gleeson. Equally as talented in his schoolwork and in making friends, Mike has enjoyed his last three years at the College. He is contemplating a degree in Agriculture upon graduation.

PATRICK JOSEPH GLEESON

Pat is a member of the fabulous quarterway club, reserved exclusively for students who have completed a full three years of their education at the College. One of the clubs more active members, Pat has coached grammar school football, was involved in the leadership program, and tutored in the elementary grades. Politics fascinate Pat and he hopes to eventually become a politician after attending university.

GERARD JOSEPH GROUT

During his four year stay at the College, Gerry's most outstanding feat was making the honor roll a total of sixteen times. In fact, it is widely rumoured that he has been on it so many times that he thinks he owns it. Despite this outstanding scholastic record, he has also found time for the Dance Committee, U.N. Club, and the intramurals. Off campus he likes to camp and relax, playing his guitar. U.B.C. can look forward to Gerry's arrival next year.

GILBERT JOSEPH GUTFREUND

Known as "Gibby" to his friends Gilbert has spent his past six years at the College. During his stay he has taken an active part in school life and has established himself as the honorable president of the Junior Achievement organization. Gilbert plans to study commerce at one of the local universities and hopefully do some travelling.

DAVID LLOYD HANCOCK

Dave "the Rave" has expressed himself as a man of varied talents during his 12 years at the College. While gaining considerable notoriety for his "Lettermen" exploits he has also contributed significantly to the sports programs. His many hobbies include singing in the locker room and cartoon drawing. Dave plans to attend U.B.C. and possibly further his athletic career.

JOHN BOBBY HARRIS

Our student body Co-President this year has a unique combination of Bill Cosby, Bobby Orr, and George Carlin. On the ice he demonstrates the finesse of Orr when playing for the Grandview Steelers. Off the ice he constantly displays the great humor of both Cosby and Carlin which has made him one of the most popular seniors. When not found studying and trying to make the honor roll, John spends his spare time skiing and skating. His plans in the future include graduation...after that who knows?

PETER ANTHONY PAUL HARRISON

Pete has spent his last ten years attending V.C. Regarded by almost everyone as a character, he has learned to compose good jokes and relax in almost every situation. In his spare time he likes to play Bingo and ski. The future is undecided for Pete but he is sure to enjoy himself in whatever he does.

Hailing from Manila, in the Philippines, Carlo now calls Vancouver his home. One of the stars of our soccer team he also has shown some prowess on the golf course. Carlo is one of the few members of the Wednesday afternoon activity who can hit the ball off the tee. He hopes to continue his studies at S.F.U. after graduation.

PETER GERARD MANLEY D. HOPKINS

In his five years at the College Pete has established himself as one of the school's finest athletes. Besides starting at forward on the basketball team he has also taken an active part in the Monogram Club and the Leadership Program. Hailing from the North Shore, which he often describes as the "land of milk and honey", he can be found playing the guitar in his spare time.

LORNE J. HUGH

Often mistaken for his look alike, Dick Butkus, Lorne has established himself as an outstanding athlete during his five years at the College. He involved himself in almost every sport imaginable and has won a total of five varsity letters and numerous trophies in doing so. Lorne will likely attend university.

JOHN HUI

Hailing from Yung Ping Rd. in Hong Kong, "Jivin' " John has involved himself in almost every facet of school life during his four year stay. A consistent honor roll student, he has also found time to be the Senior Boarder President and the Number Two man on the Yearbook staff. Off campus, he can be found either dancing, viewing the latest movies, or reading. John wishes to attend S.F.U. for a degree in Business Administration.

GREGORY MICHAEL JARVIS

Nicknamed "Jigs", Greg has established himself as an excellent student in his four years at the College. Despite being a fine athlete in various fields, his first love is chess, where opponents swear he is another Boris Fischer. Running a close second to chess is making sure the girls are properly treated-a very interesting hobby. The future holds university for Greg with ambitions of becoming a doctor.

EDWARD JOHN KAZUN

Ed has enjoyed a productive nine years at the College. While being one of the school's real heavyweights he has put himself to good use in the basketball and track programs. He has sold 2157 pencils as head boy in the school's little book shop and earns real money every weekend playing the drums. He'll go on to University, of course.

GERALD JAMES KIRK

Gerald came to the College from St. Anthony's, West Van. in grade eight and enjoyed two years here before leaving for a two year stay in Saskatchewan. Fortunately, (for both himself and us) he decided to return for his senior year. Despite being undecided on his future Gerald is sure to go a long way in life.

OTTO E. KLIMENT

Originally from Graz, Austria, Otto now makes his home in Cassiar. During his two year stay at the College, he has shown himself to be a real daredevil participating in such antics as hockey, skidoo and motorcycle racing. Otto looks forward to B.C.I.T. and a possible career on the lucrative, international skidoo racing circuit.

ANTHONY RAYMOND KOCH

"Boney" Tony came to the College midway through Grade 8 and has made his presence well felt ever since. A native of Kamloops, Tony is a fine artist and has shown this talent in some of his colourful posterwork for games and dances. He is also blessed with a witty sense of humor which has made his very popular among his classmates. The future holds plenty of rest and possibly attendance at commercial art school for Tony.

More than an adequate deterent to all those Polish jokes, Ted has proven himself to be a fine student during his five year stay at the College. Off campus, he can be found roaming the mountains in search of wild grizzlies to shoot with both his camera and his gun. Ted's future after graduation includes university and travel.

LEONARD ALLEN LAKOWSKI

Len is made up of a good mix; he's a good athlete, and he ain't too low on smarts either. He played football during his two years at College but an injury early this season forced him to the sidelines. A constant honour roll student Len plans to attend U.B.C.

IVOR LADD

Hong Kong's loss was College's gain in Ivor, who in his five years at College, has led his class academically throughout. When he wasn't achieving outstanding grades, he was involved with the yearbook. Electronics, photography, mechanics, etc. also gain his attention, as well as skiing and tennis. If Ivor finds time to graduate he will attend U.B.C., and possibly postgrad in the U.S.

JOSEPH LEAHY

Holy Name Parish has shared Joe with College for twelve long years. Joe has kept active during his senior year by being a member in the Grad and Dance Committee, along with swimming at Percy Norman on Wednesdays. Upon completing Grade 12 Joe will further his education at an institute of higher learning.

GARY LAWRENCE

"Swish" could best describe Gary's two short years at College. A starting guard in Grade 11 and this years scoring hope, he has proved to be an outstanding shooter. Basketball doesn't leave him much time but he engages in boarder activities, helps to tutor the kiddies in elementary, and practices the old golf swing once in a while. An unknown university is in Gary's future.

JOHN JOSEPH LENAHAN

Despite being born in Newfoundland, John still managed an active school life in his six years here. When not ripping down rebounds for the varsity basketball team, John busies himself with Student Council, Vice-Presidency of the Monogram Club, and the Walkathon. A constant honor roll student, he plans to attend U.B.C. in the field of Science.

NORMAND LECLAIRE

Norm, a parishioner from Immaculate Conception, completes his twelfth year at College this year. His activities during the senior year included Community Rec., while outside of school he played Meraloma football. Upon graduating Norm will work for a year, and then mix study with pleasure at the University of Hawaii.

KEVIN THOMAS LEWIS

Five years at College haven't changed him a bit, much to the relief of Kev. His sense of humor was enjoyed by all his classmates, and even the odd teacher. And to Kev some were pretty odd. Wednesday afternoons would find Kev in the swimming activity, while outside school he played soccer. In fact, after graduation Kev plans to play soccer in the Beer League.

ANGEL LOSTALE

Angel has spent the last five years (this year as a boarder) at College participating in the sports programs. He played varsity soccer this year as well as playing junior varsity and one year of varsity football. To clear things, his name "the Angel" does not coincide with his reputation for extracurricular activities. He hopes to attend a Canadian university.

PETER HANK LUYTEN

Though he comes from Holland, land of tulips and daffodils, you'd never mistake Hank for either. Old "Blood and Guts" Luyten never failed to thrill us with his escapades behind German lines in the Second World War, and after ten years you start to believe him. Hank's other main interests were U.N., and photography, which included working the video-taper. After Grade Twelve Hank plans to attack Sciences at U.B.C.

MARTIN THOMAS MacDONALD

In exchange for Margaret Trudeau, Ottawa has sent us Martin MacDonald, who has attended College for ten years now. Martin played varsity football this year but an unfortunate wrist injury kept him out of late season action. Outside school his sporting interests shift to playing and watching hockey. Martin will let things ride after graduation before deciding anything definite.

DAVID PETER FRANK McGIVERN

Dave has shown himself to be a very talented athlete in his stay at College. Besides being one of the Magnificent Seven (the seven twelve year men) he has lettered in both basketball and track and participated in the Leadership Institute. During the summer he devoted himself to social work, helping the mentally handicapped children. His favorite Wednesday afternoon activity was going home for lunch. After graduation Dave hopes to enter the field of medicine at U.B.C. and eventually become a Dr. Welby.

KEVIN MICHAEL PHILIP MacKENZIE

Coming from Liverpool three and a half years ago, Kevin has made his mark in Canada as one of our chief donut salesmen, even though he eats more than he sells. Another specialty he brought from England is his soccer ability, which Kev puts into use for the Senior Soccer team. After his stint at College he plans to return home and become an accountant.

NELSON MA

Nelson came to us from Johannesburg, South Africa, He has been boarding at the College for two years now, taking advantage of the study periods to keep himself on the honor roll. Nelson also took part in the yearbook activity for a time. He will further his education at university.

TED ALBERT ANTHONY MAHLER

Ted's been crossing the inlet to College for five years, yet he still has enough energy to play for the senior soccer team. When not making like "Pélé" he gives his time to the Youville elderly citizen home, entertaining the folks. After graduation, for reasons known only to himself and God, he will attend the University of Saskatchewan.

Ralph has tread through the hallowed halls of College for eight and one-half years now. Although he claims his favourite Wednesday afternoon activity was going home, he was usually seen helping out on the "Voice." In his spare time Ralph enjoys reading the works of great authors and wondering, "Why didn't I write that?" His plans for the future include Oxford or Cambridge-if they'll take him.

JOE MAZZONE

DOMINIQUE ANTOINE MASSOT

During his five year stay at College, Dominique was a friend to many failing French students who needed help. Besides tutoring lost causes he was a member of the Collegian staff and was involved in intramurals. His plans after graduation are pretty complicated, including U.B.C. for one year, then to California to study in the nursery (no, not that type of nursery) and then off to tour France.

Six years at Vancouver College has molded "Mazoo" into a fine football player, playing defensive halfback as well as running back, not to mention "Captain". As if football wasn't tough enough, Joe also gets his kicks rubber-rafting down rivers. Joe would like to go to university and possibly Law school.

FREDRICK STEVEN MITCHELL

Fred's seen both sides of College life; a day student in grades six and seven, a boarder in eleven and twelve. And to the amazement of Fred, he's survived both! Squash and hockey occupy his attention every Wednesday, and outside of school, Fred enjoys nothing more than riding up trees in his snowmobile. Fred's aim after College is university and Europe.

RICK MOLDOWAN

Rick's been tearing up opposing linemen for three years now at College, playing defensive and offensive tackle with the varsity gridders. After the season he kept himself in shape running the Christmas Hamper for the Monogram Club. Travelling to faraway places or the hard reality of university hold a place in Rick's future.

He came to College in Grade Nine, left us in Grade Ten, but in Grade Twelve Ty came back, and we're glad he did. In his short time here he has made his mark as an excellent quarterback, not to mention his announcing at home basketball games, which could put Howard Cosell to shame. After graduation Ty would like to take his arm down south and seek his fortune.

PATRICK MICHAEL MURPHY

An Immaculate Conception parishioner, Murph makes the long journey every day from Surrey. Despite this being Pat's first year, he quickly got into the swing of things, earning a letter in Varsity football and achieving Honour Roll status. After graduation Pat plans to take a year off to find himself, or find a job, and then go to university.

MICHAEL GEORGE MYLETT

Let's make one thing perfectly clear, Mike is the Co-President. "George" has also shown his versatility on the basketball court, high jump pit, and the Leadership Institute. However, Mike can put a l'il shake in yore shaker as he gets it on with the Temptin' Temptations. In his leisure time he enjoys a fast game of handball at the Jewish Community Center. He plans to continue his education after graduation.

TIMOTHY EDWARD NIXON

His 12 years at College have been busy ones for Tim, especially in his Senior Year. Basketball, track, grade 8 football; Tim's played them all. He also enjoys a high level of authority being Monogram Club president plus a seat on the Student Council. He has a great love for the outdoors, being an experienced camper and water-skier. Frolicking in the field of Science seems to be Tim's aims at U.B.C.

PAUL MARTIN MARK POULIER

Paul has enjoyed a five year stay at the College since his arrival from Columbo, Ceylon. From Immaculate Conception, he enjoys everything to do with aviation. Air cadets, gliding and flying take up much of Paul's spare time. After finishing school he hopes to do some travelling.

DONAL PATRICK O'CALLAGHAN

Don's been coming to College since Grade Six, except for a brief interim in Grade 9 when he went to Trail. A variety of sports have held Don's interest, from J.V. football to playing soccer, and even a little skiing on the side. Donal has also figured largely in the U.N. club. Born in the Emerald Isles, Don hopes to visit the Old Country after graduation.

JAMES RICHARD PARADIS

Jim's cheerful personality has been seen in the halls of College for five years. Besides his endeavors in Intramural Basketball, U.N. Club, and the Collegian, Jim is a constant honor roll student. A lover of all sports, his Wednesday afternoon activity is golf. Although uncertain about his future plans, he will likely attend U.B.C.

GORDON R. RUFER

For three years Gordon has waded through the glorious marsh of Richmond to the College campus. Gordon enjoys skiing down the snowy mountains and sailing across the open ocean. Originally from the flat plains of Alberta he plans to relax by skiing after graduation.

STEFAN PETER SCHULHOF

Stefan drifted into the College five years ago. He cherishes scuba-diving and cycling. He also enjoys photography and painting in his spare time. The future sees Stefan furthering his education to become a marine biologist.

RONNIE R. SENGARA

You probably won't believe this, but Ron is the editor of the section of the year-book you're reading right now. Not only that, but if you're in the U.N. Club, he's your president! And if you get off on parties, skiing, tennis, and "The Temptations", you'll get off on Ron. Honor roll students don't feel left out. Ron's one too. But if you're planning to take a year off after graduation, too bad. Ron's going into commerce and law at U.B.C.

AMANTE M. da SILVA

Andy has established himself as a fine student since his arrival from Brazil three years ago. As an enthusiastic College supporter he has involved himself with the musical, senior soccer team; and as an activity, German conversation. Playing in a rock band takes up much of his spare time. He is undecided about his future.

DOUG SLOMAN

One year ago Doug wandered out of the woods of Tofino to V.C. A happy-go-lucky person Doug utilizes his spare time with golf and beachcombing. After graduation he plans to work to earn some money for a long vacation.

LORNE PATRICK SMITH

Every morning Lorne races in his red Duster from the barren plains of Langley to College. A V.C. student for ten years Lorne contributes his time to the U.N. Club and Leadership Institute as well as being a constant honor roll student. In his spare time he bowls, plays tennis and a new water sport called Rucuby. Lorne hopes to make his fortune in the field of architecture at U.B.C.

RICHARD JOSEPH SOET

Rich has been a colorful character around the College for five years. His time is actively spent slaving on the Yearbook, working with the giant bingo and roughing it up on the intramural basketball program. When not mountain climbing Rich is usually doing something different like rock climbing. The future sees him at B.C.I.T. followed by a relaxing holiday to "everywhere."

VERNON GERARD SPETIFORE

Coming from the "promised land" of Delta Vern has enjoyed a two year stay at the College. His claim to fame is his Olds Cutlass in which he rolls up to school each morning. A Sacred Heart parishioner Vern spends his leisure time horseback riding and painting. He hopes to continue his education in commerce at U.B.C.

DAVID JOHN STEWART

Dave has made himself a familiar face during his two year stay at the College. Besides being one of the original "Temptations", Dave is active with track, skiing and the Monogram Club. Originally from Toronto, Dave enjoys sailing and playing the drums, not simultaneously of course. After graduation Dave will attend university.

ROBERT ARTHUR STEWART

After five years at V.C. Bob has come into his own this year. Grad Committee Chairman, Bingo Committee Organizer and soccer forward have kept him a busy person around the College. Every Wednesday afternoon Bob splashes around with "the Men" at Percy Norman Pool. He plans to travel around the States and Canada while he makes up his mind about the future.

DANIEL PATRICK JOHN SULLIVAN

Dan, affectionately known by his friends as "THE MAN", has singled himself out as an exceptional athlete. In his six years at College he has starred in football and basketball at every level. Dan, a member of the monogram club, is famous for his rather peculiar poetry. His extracurricular activities include boogying on the piano and V.I.P. membership in the tasters club. He plans to pursue his education down south.

HENRICO GINO LEO STADIOTTI

Gino's hard work on the varsity football team has earned him the reputation as being one of the finest linemen. He has attended the College for five years and has indulged himself in the Monogram Club and swimming activity on Wednesday afternoons. He spends his spare time working on the "mighty Fraser" on one of his father's tugs. Gino is sure to be successful in any field he choses to pursue at U.B.C.

STEVEN CHARLES SWEENEY

During his six year stay Steve has devoted much of his time and energy to the College. Besides playing varsity football, working on the musical, and helping with grad, he still finds time to terrorize the nearest ski slopes. After a relaxing vacation he will continue his studies at university.

BART CHARLES TICHELMAN

Due to a hip injury Bart has divided his scnior year between the College and the hospital. During his ten years here he has donated his talents to such activities as the Collegian, Soundroom, and the Musical. He enjoys reading and hopes to put it to use in the field of Medicine at U.B.C.

JOHN WILLIAM WAGNER

Although John "Boots" Wagner was born in Toronto, the College knows him to be a true product of Cassiar, B.C. When not studying he can be found either serving a tennis ball, driving a golf ball, or riding the range on his trusty steed. The College knows that B.C.'s national parks will be protected when John's dream as a game warden is fulfilled.

The donut salesmen patiently sell their donuts at the break, even though utter chaos surrounds them.

PETER WINTERNITZ

"Johann" has been a happy boarder for three years at the College. Hailing from the jungle of the Philippines where he learned to play soccer, he is a valuable asset on the varsity soccer team. Being an avid tennis player he is often found hard at work on the tennis courts. Upon graduation he hopes to further his education at university, possibly Simon Fraser.

TOM WYLIE

"Trigger" Tom is a product of the giant town of Masset, B.C. For the past three years he has been known around the College as a quiet guy. However, he has a completely different personality as a key member of the varsity basketball squad. He also contributes his leisure time to community recreation. Tom is undecided on his future after his exciting College life as a boarder has ended.

MAGNIFICENT SEVEN

Perhaps the most amazing aspect of the Twelve Year Men, is that four out of the seven are members of the varsity basketball squad. This emphasizes the fact that College home-grows their athletes, rather than recruiting them. However, these twelve year men not only play basketball, they have got involved in other things such as the Leadership Institute, Grad Committee, Student Council and Track and Field.

The twelve year men, though they are but seven Have made it through College, we thank God in heaven Their journey has ended, we're all very glad That twelve years here has not driven them mad.

Very cute they were in grade one but such pests Now in grade twelve they act tough and flunk tests In grade one they counted all things big and small As seniors they wonder if they count at all.

When they came they were tiny and ran all about And now as seniors "let it all hang out". They'll remember hearing "my son, my son" On those too frequent days with their homework not done.

The two and ten years have been worth it maybe To hear Brother Bucher "Oh, well. It's your baby." The Brothers can marvel that they've grown so tall But marvel still more that their brains stayed so small.

They heard Buddy Holly when he was alive But now in grade twelve dig the cool Jackson Five. In grade one, remember, they could grin ear to ear But now ears have gone and the shag look is here.

Can one man take on the whole Trojans Team?

Once again this year the Jets, Trojans and Vikings kept the College field well trampled on and made a very exciting evening air in the Fall.

This year's season was a prolonged one with the Vikings, coached by Br. Thorne, coming out on top. Br. McCarthy's Jets and Br. Furey's Trojans tried their best to crush the hard defensive line of the Vikings.

On the rare occasion, Jorge Escalera and Jim Agostino were able to outwit the strong offence of the Vikings, led by Tom Mulhern. Mark Bachmann led the Trojans to a few victories at the beginning of the season but suffered heavy defeat towards the end.

THE COLLEGIAN

The Collegian staff is composed of editors, assistant editors, photographers and darkroom men, each with a specific job. The Editorin-Chief of this year's production is Dennis Bosa. Br. Lyons is the advisor and Br. McCarthy is the moderator. The staff is also grateful to Mr. Espinosa who took the group and grad pictures. The Collegian tries to capture the school year in pictures and to present it in an orderly fashion.

"Arfon who?" inquired Dominique Massot of Carl Munana as they checked the class lists one Saturday morning.

"The VoiCe" is the student newspaper now in its fourth year of operation. "The VoiCe" expresses the views and opinions of student life and activities. It also covers important functions which happen at College. This year's editor is Diarmuid Dick.

Mr. Mullen, who holds an editorial post on the Vancouver Province newspaper, is moderator of The VoiCe. He also has contributed some very good candid football and basketball pictures to the Collegian.

The Student Council is made up of elected class representatives who organize school activities. This year's Student Council, under the co-presidency of John Harris and Mike Mylett, purchased glass backboards for the gym, gave donations to the different activities and ran a rummage sale to collect school funds. They inaugurated Spirit Week and revived the Variety Show, both very successful ventures. They also devised and operated the great Walkathon which netted an amazing ten thousand dollars for the library and for the school debt reduction.

The Senior Boarders are a unique part of Vancouver College. They give the College students a chance to talk to people from outside Vancouver. Brs. Angel, Cassidy and Carrothers are in charge of the "dorm" this year. The Boarders have regular study periods after school to keep their marks up. When not working the boarders entertain themselves by watching the colored T.V. and playing records, poker, pool or various sports in the gym.

The Junior Boarders are also very active enjoying the benefits of a varied sports program.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES

This is the second year that the Wednesday Afternoon Activities have been in operation. Every Wednesday afternoon students are dismissed from classes to participate in various sports and enrichment programs. They range from Skiing to Chess and from Golf to the Newspaper. There are many activities during the year and it is impossible to cover them all. The ones selected here are the more popular ones. Both teachers and students agree that the mid-week activity session was a wonderful invention. It makes easier the casting of large numbers in the musicals and is a great advantage to the school publications. It places responsibility on the shoulders of the students for its success and so far they have responded

SWIMMING

This year the swimming activity was at Percy Norman Pool, a Vancouver Parks Board pool on east 30th Ave. next to Capilano Stadium. It is quite convenient for College students as it is within walking distance.

Brother Hancock moderated the first half year and Mr. Kavalec the second half. The students organized swimming races and diving contests which can go on simultaneously as these happen in different pools. The average attendance was above thirty depending on the season and it is planned to expand the horizon in future years and perhaps use this as the nucleus of a competitive Vancouver College swimming team.

Robert Schretlen, Doug Ross and Bruce Clegg admire their masterpieces in the once-a-week art activity that gives them an opportunity to try something different ... and answer some questions about themselves without risking too much.

Over 100 students from schools all over British Columbia and Washington took part. Students from College billeted out of town students for a weekend. The club also sponsored a highly successful dance. All in all a very satisfying year for the club.

The Revival

The 50th anniversary of Vancouver College has not only brought about a milestone of College's achievements but also has brought on a rebirth of the general spirit of the school. This is especially evident in the athletic aspect of College. The Fighting Irish have renewed their vigor in the area of soccer.

Soccer in College dated back as far as the 1920's. Then the Irish were one of the top teams in the province. They also were the first team to win the Provincial Championship in 1924. However, College's status as a private school led to it's elimination from the league. Later on, during the 1950's, soccer was resurrected by Br. Kelly. With his fine coaching, the Irish proved themselves superior to the local talents. However, soccer was discontinued later because of build up of interest in football.

The rebirth of soccer this year is the development of three teams. Division one, mainly consisting of seniors, is coached by Mr. McCracken. Division two, consisting mainly of Gr. 9 and 10 students, is coached by Br. Condon. The Gr. 8 students form division four, also coached by Br. Condon.

Due to inexperience and strong opponents, College will have a very tough time in their leagues. However, they have tremendous potential. There is no doubt that within the near future, the Irish will bring back the glorious memories of the past.

Of Soccer

VARIETY SHOW

One of the major attractions this year was the Variety Show, sponsored and organized by the Student Council. The Variety Show, the first since 1969 showed a good cross section of talent among the contemporary College students. There were impersonations, comedy routines and several bands but the major attraction was the valiant attempt of the Grade 12 students to do the Nut Cracker Suite ballet. The grace and poise of the dancers attracted and held spell-bound several hundred amazed parents, friends and students --- a truly unforgetable experience.

Prince Charming, Tim Nixon, sweeps the young girl, Dave Hancock, off of her (his) feet in the grand finale of the Nut Cracker Suite.

Bobo, Doug Ware, the guest on "You Bet Your Life", listens to Groucho Marx, Eric Thorsteinson, as he explains the rules of the game.

Quite a city Vancouver. Splendid mix of people. A climate to encourage thought and action. Beautifully located. The humming centre of British Columbia's commercial activity. We started here twelve years ago, and Ray Torresan & Associates grew. From public relations, to advertising and sales promotion. To total marketing communication -a concept unique in Canada. From Vancouver, to offices nationally. To Calgary, Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal, Halifax. Then London, England, to serve an international market -with sixty-five great people in the organization to make it all work. Serving airlines, hotels, a distillery, a tobacco company, manufacturers, sports organizations, people as groups, people as individuals. And it started in Vancouver.

For the full story on total Torresan marketing communication -- call us, and get growing.

SPIRIT WEEK

One of the new and unusual ideas introduced at College this year was Spirit Week. It took place during the week prior to the N.D.V.C. football game and was designed to get the school in the right frame of mind for the game. Under the direction of John Harris and his forces, Spirit Week took form of fun and games, all of which pulled the school together. The week's activities climaxed with an all afternoon assembly, including a pyramid building contest, a pie eating contest and a skit by each class. All in all, it proved to be one of the best weeks of the school year.

"Who did that?" questions Brother Hancock.
